Report of School Board.

The board of education presents to the citizens of Mont Vernon this report of the school for the year 1903.

At the regular town meeting held in March, Mrs. Clara H Kendall was elected to the board for the ensuing three years. Mrs. Clara Kendall was elected as treasurer of the board.

The board organized with the following officers: Mrs. Carrie Trow, chairman; Mrs. Clara Kendall, treasurer; Mrs. Annie Perham, secretary.

One of the most essential things of this organ of the town is finance and in comparing this year's cash amount, we found the previous year began with $71.38 extra as passed over from treasurer of 1901 and cash from sale of coal. This extra amount means a great deal to the board and doubly so this year as our transportation bill has increased. Our demands over balance our means, but we have been able to keep within our limit as the treasurer has kept constant vigilance over our cash account. We have gotten along this year but cannot next without a larger appropriation.

You may notice a difference in length of term in some of the districts but the West school had an extra week during 1902 and the South lacked one week. Last spring we gave the South that extra week, making each school in town equal as to length of term. On account of the distance some of our children must travel, and as the roads to the school are less traveled, the board thought it best to convey the children of the East district to the Centre school during the spring term, but as we were unable to furnish transportation for each family we decided to reopen the school in that district in the fall.

Miss Bertha Hadley had charge of the school during the remaining terms of the year. Miss Hadley gave good satisfaction and if the children could have attended regularly the teacher would have been more encouraged in her faithful work. During the winter term another obstacle presented itself on account of the severe weather but one scholar was able to attend regularly. The board, after five weeks of winter term, again closed the school. The remaining weeks will go onto the spring term thus giving each school equal chance.

Miss Ethelle Hutchinson taught the South school during the spring term but resigned in the fall. Miss Amy Hutchinson completed the year. The Misses Hutchinson give good satisfaction and the children do good work. Miss Mabel E. Hill of Raymond had charge of Centre school during the spring term but the board voted to employ a normal graduate for the remainder of the year. We were fortunate in securing Miss Clara Purdy of Wilton, a graduate of the Bartlett Training and Normal school of Lowell, Mass. One visit to her school will convince each one of her ability as a teacher and the progress of the scholars.

Miss Mabelle Spencer had charge of the West school a part of the spring term but on account of sickness she resigned. Miss Bertha Hadley completed the term. Miss Hortensia McMillen of Merrimack had charge of the school for the remaining terms. Perhaps it is sufficient to say that this is her fourth year as teacher of this school. She retains unto the end, the love and good will of parent and scholar.

Our school houses were thoroughly cleaned and placed in proper order before the opening of the fall term. The East and Centre school-house chimneys were relaid. The Centre school house received a fresh coat of paint inside and many needed repairs, such as curtains, etc., have been duly attended to. The secretary looked over each book, during the summer, mending such as were fit for use, catalogueing and numbering each book so that the town may know its property, as quite a number of dollars are invested in books. A new closet was arranged, registers for books were provided for each teacher so that our books may be properly looked after. Our teachers have had careful lookout for school supplies so that waste may be avoided.

At the present time our school library contains about 515 books in fairly good condition. Our books are mostly for advanced scholars so that new books must be provided for our little ones. As the elements of algebra are required of a pupil before entering a high school we have endeavored to teach this branch in some of our schools and every effort has been put forth that our scholars may be a credit to our supervision but much better results might be obtained if it were possible for each scholar to be present each day.

Personally, I appreciate the parents' good will and co-operation and fully realize that our children are not just where they ought to be, but with your help and forbearance with our shortcomings the future may be more hopeful. A good beginning is begun and there is no reason why each child can't progress rapidly if thoroughly done.

During the past years I have felt your support and assistance without which I couldn't have gotten along. I want to thank you, citizens and parents, and wish you much success in the future. It is the children I am interested in and for, and whenever I look upon their bright, sweet faces I feel paid for all labors I may have done.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE E. PERHAM,

Secretary,

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES.

This library should bring greater happiness to the homes and to the people than any other institution in town, except the church.

Put the annoyances and discouragements of the day aside and live for a little while in fun, logic or sorrows of some mythical character. From the rest, conclusions or sympathy thus aroused, there will come renewed strength and interest, which will make possible a better understanding and a more complete accomplishment of life's work.

We are happy to record a greater utilization of the books during the past year than ever before. But yet, "again," as in the past, we insistently urge you to use the library that you have so generously created and draw from it that degree of enlightenment, enjoyment and inspiration that the splendid people of this peerless old town can so fully appreciate.

HENRY F. DODGE,
JAY M. GLEASON,
WILLARD P. WOODS,
